Booking Mass Intentions for 2011

There is a great tradition of families remembering deceased family members at an annual public Mass. People may begin booking Masses for 2011 now. Due to the high number of Masses being booked for weekends it is necessary for families to share. So if you book a Mass for a particular Saturday or Sunday and another family wants the same day, it will be necessary for both families to share the same Mass. This new arrangement will apply from January 2011.

Drug / HIV Helpline 1800 459 459 Confidential Support and Information service from the HSE.

The Blood Transfusion Service will be taking Blood in the Tullamore Court Hotel, Monday 16th – Thursday 19th 5 p.m. to 8.30 p.m.. All are welcome, or see giveblood.ie

THE CHIROPODIST WILL ATTEND AT RAHUGH SOCIAL SERVICES CLINIC TWICE IN AUGUST AS THERE WILL BE NO CLINIC IN SEPTEMBER. THE NEXT DATE IN AUGUST IS WEDNESDAY THE 25TH AUGUST.

I would like to thank the Cemetery Committee which oversees the upkeep of the cemetery. The collection at the gate on Cemetery Sunday amounted to €7,000. This will be used for the upkeep of the cemetery. I hope the cemetery will be extended in the coming year.

We wish Fr. Benny Bohan SPS every blessing on his return to Zambia. It was a great pleasure for us to celebrate his 50th anniversary of ordination. It was lovely to have him celebrate some of our Sunday Masses in both churches. We wish him a safe journey and a speedy return.

Thanks to all who contributed to the parish this week. Offertory €1,025,
