Congratulations to all involved in Cemetery Devotions. We had a great attendance, and the choir added to the devotions. Thanks to the Cemetery Committee and to Jimmy Geoghegan and Daniel O'Connell and John Guilfoyle who helped Jimmy. Despite all the bad weather the cemetery was in great condition. Thanks to all who attended and to all who did such a nice job on the plots. Thanks to all who contributed to the Cemetery Committee Collection which raised €6,421.99

Kilbeggan Apostolic Society are starting their annual collection next week. We would like to acknowledge with thanks all who supported us over the years. New members are always welcome.

Church gate collections in Kilbeggan and Rahugh.

The law states that collectors must be 25 meters from the entrance to church grounds. This will now be enforced and in future the licence for Kilbeggan and Rahugh will only permit collections after Mass. We want people to be able to come to Mass without feeling pressure to give money to various groups.

Prayer for 50th International Eucharistic Congress: 6th May to 8th September: Rahugh.
