St. Vincent De Paul Annual Christmas Appeal

It's Annual St. Vincent De Paul appeal time again and this year we need your friendship and support more than ever. In the countdown to this Christmas we are expecting more demands on our very limited resources than we have experienced in a very long time. This year we have moved away from a Church Gate Collection to a direct appeal to each householder in the Parish. An appeal letter, with a return envelope, is being delivered and we ask you to leave your donation to any of the names on the letter or return them on the church collection plate any Sunday. We thank you for your support in the past and we will be grateful for your continued support. On behalf of all local society members, we wish you a very Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year.
