TRÓCAIRE
Working for a Just World

The Collection at Masses this weekend is for Trócaire. We will share what we have with those who are in such need.

Somalia needs $300m over the next two months to avoid an absolute catastrophe, according to the United Nations who officially declared that the country is in the midst of a famine. You can contribute by calling Trócaire Head Office, Maynooth, Co. Kildare, Ireland. Tel: +353 1 6293333 / Fax: +353 1 6290661. Trócaire is the official overseas development agency of the Catholic Church in Ireland. It was set up by the Irish Catholic Bishops in 1973 to express the concern of the Irish Church for the suffering of the world's poorest and most oppressed people. Trócaire's partnership approach makes us different. We work through global Catholic networks and with local partners on the ground. When we help people, we work with them, so that they drive the entire process themselves. Solutions are not imposed on the people we help. Instead, they become the authors of their own destiny

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Sun Kyung, wife of Joseph Mc Cormack, who died suddenly at their home in Seoul, Korea. Ann Mc Cormack, Loughrea, sister of Lipsey McCormack, Harbour Rd., who died in a house fire. May they rest in peace.

Welcome to the parish Anna Claire Coyne, daughter of Catriona and John, Attyconnor who was baptised this week.

Kilbeggan Cemetery Devotions Sunday 31st July at 3 p.m.

The Committee would ask people to park in the town in order to leave the car park free for the elderly and infirmed. The Committee will have a collection at the entrance to help their work in the cemetery. At the ceremony there will be Rosary and prayers. I would like to thank the Committee for all their work in developing the Cemetery and Jimmy for all his year round work. Thanks to all who keep their family plots so well.

Confirmation and First Holy Communion dates in the Parish for the Coming year. Confirmation will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Thursday 26th April 2012. Castletown Geoghegan will join us for the Confirmation. First Holy Communion will be celebrated in Kilbeggan on Saturday 12th May at 11 a.m..

law states that collectors must be 25 meters from the entrance to church grounds. This will now be enforced and in future the licence for Kilbeggan and Rahugh will only permit collections after Mass.

Kilbeggan Community Arts Project 2010, which is promoted each year by South Westmeath Employment, Education & Training Services Ltd (S.W.E.E.T.S. Ltd), and supported by Westmeath County Council's County Arts Office, will be unveiled in the square, Kilbeggan, this Wednesday, 27th July, at 3.00pm. The art work is a mosaic which was designed by the Transition and 5th Year Art Classes of the Mercy Secondary School, in collaboration with local artist Celine Sheridan, and will be mounted on a dome, designed, constructed and erected by SWEETS Ltd. The mosaic will be unveiled by Catherine Kelly, Arts Officer, Westmeath County Council. Please come along to mark this important addition to the town's attractions.

Plate Collection Sunday 10th July €1,125.
