As the Céilí Community are leaving the Convent in Kilbeggan this week, we wish them every blessing in their work and in their search for a new home. They have enriched the parish and have made many friends here in the past four years.

A Meeting of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association will be held on Wednesday 1st June at 8p.m. St James Church. All members asked to attend.

Progress Report on the Development of a Parish Centre.

Following the placement of an advertisement in the local papers last February seeking Expressions of Interest from Consultant Engineers / Architectural Firms to Project Manage the development of a Parish Centre for Kilbeggan, 12 expressions of interest were received by closing date 18th February.

Each Firm that expressed an interest was asked to submit a quality submission and tender price for the work before 26th April.

Following an assessment of the submissions the Parish Council have decided to appoint, Heavey Architects in Athlone, to Project Manage the development of the Parish Centre. In consultation with the Parish Council, Heavey Architects will now prepare outline drawings and cost estimate including structural evaluation of the Parochial House as an alternative location and make a recommendation on the most suitable site. When Heavey Architects have developed drawings for the Parish Centre they will go on display in the Church.

Is the Catholic Church in Ireland alone in introducing this new Missal?

The Catholic Church in Ireland, along with Churches throughout the English-speaking world, is working towards introducing the new edition of the Roman Missal at this time. This new edition is the English translation of the Latin Missal that was issued by Pope John Paul II in 2002. Since 2002 the Church in its many languages has engaged in the work of translating this Latin text through study, reflection and consultation. This work in English-speaking countries is now complete. In Ireland, as in other English-speaking countries, the new Missal will come into use during autumn 2011.

What differences can we expect at Mass from September 2011?

From September, congregations will begin to pray the new translations of the people's prayers at Mass. These new texts will be on missalettes and on specially produced 'congregational cards' and will assist us in becoming more familiar with the new edition. In some places people will, by then, already be familiar with this congregational card through using it at weekday Mass or at parish meetings.

Where do I find the changes in the people's prayers at Mass?

The Mass missalette and the congregational card will have all the prayers and responses that are changing. These are also available on www.catholicbishops.ie and www.liturgy-ireland.ie, accompanied by brief video explanations. There are new translations of 'I confess', 'Glory to God in the highest', the Creeds, the acclamations in the Eucharistic Prayers, 'Lord, I am not worthy' and a number of other prayers and responses, which are very slightly changed; for example, in the Holy, Holy, we say 'Lord God of hosts' and in the response to 'Pray, brothers and sisters', the addition of one word, 'holy' before 'Church'; where we responded 'And also with you', we now say 'And with your spirit'.
