Parish Booklet. Thanks to all who distributed the Parish Booklet to all the homes in the parish last week. We hope the booklet will prove helpful, and help people to see all that is happening in our community.

Parish Centre

All homes received a letter concerning a new Parish Centre. It is hoped that the centre would be a warm, comfortable and friendly environment where people could meet and our sense of parish and community could grow and develop. It could be used by groups in the parish. If you have suggestions or opinions on the possible centre please forward them to me before Friday 10th December.

The IBTS needs 3,000 units of blood each week to fulfil the demands made on it. At the moment it is finding it difficult to get enough voluntary donations to meet its needs. So your help is urgently sought. There is a clinic in The Tullamore Court Hotel, Monday to Thursday 29th – 2nd from 4.30 p.m. – 8 p.m. Or contact giveblood.ie

Fostering Care is caring for and sharing your home and family life with children who are unable to live with their own families for various reasons. HSE Longford/Westmeath urgently need foster homes. Are you willing to take this challenge and give a child a chance of a better future? For further information please contact the fostering team Athlone 09064 83106, Mullingar 0449384450.
