The Parish Pastoral Council met on Monday 18th.

- A subcommittee was established to look at other parish centres which might give ideas for the size and scope of a new Parish Centre in Kilbeggan.
- As a result of a Safety & Health Audit & Risk Assessment Report it was decided that the parish could not lease buildings at the Parochial House to the Scouts.
- A subcommittee is in the process of establishing a liturgy committee for the parish.
- An area will be marked where those who are collecting outside the church may stand so that people can enter the church without feeling pressure to contribute.
- An area will be reserved for parking at funerals for the bereaved family, this area will be stewarded.
- The Council hopes to have the parish booklet with all the organisations information delivered to each home in the next month.
