DAY FOR LIFE 2010

This day aims to present the Church's teaching on death; it will highlight the importance of the sacrament of the sick, of praying for the dead and of accompanying the dying person as they journey towards God. It will also point towards the consoling presence and support of the community of faith and all of those who 'have gone before us marked with the sign of faith'.

8 p.m. Annie and William Keegan, Comagh Rd

9.30 a.m. Bridget and Thomas Coyne

11 a.m. Peter and May Morgan

Monday 4th 9.30 a.m. Patrick, Mary and J.J. Wyer

Booking Mass Intentions for 2011

There is a great tradition of families remembering deceased family members at an annual public Mass. Due to the high number of Masses being booked for weekends it is necessary for families to share. So if you book a Mass for a particular Saturday or Sunday and another family wants the same day, it will be necessary for both families to share the same Mass. This new arrangement will apply from January 2011.

Book Sale in Aid of The Bone Marrow For Leukaemia Trust, on Saturday 16th October, in the Bridge Centre, Tullamore. If anyone has books they would like to donate for the sale, contact Jackie on 087 610 9590.

Tullamore Gospel Choir is holding an open night on Wednesday October 6th @ 8.00 pm at the Day chapel, Church of the Assumption, Tullamore. People from all denominations are welcome to come along and experience the fun, friendly atmosphere of the choir in rehearsal. We are particularly looking for prospective male members in order to enhance the quality and the overall musical sound of the choir. There is no age limit to membership of the Choir – the only requirement is that you can actually sing! So, come along and enjoy the uplifting experience of one of Ireland's largest choirs at work! Feel free to chat to existing members about their experience in the choir during light refreshments. You and your friends are most welcome! A great night not to be missed!

Ploughing Championships.

Congratulations to Christopher Carton, Garryduff, who won the All Ireland Junior Ploughing Championship in Athy last week. Paul Daly, Cornaher, was fourth in the same Class. James Evans, Ballynacargy, finished a very good fifth in the Vintage Class. Other locals who were very much involved in organising the event were Tom Lyman, Coola, Supervisor, and Sean Dally, Corhaher, who judged the Horse Classes. Well Done to All.

Day for Life Prayer

Go forth, Christian soul, from this world
in the name of God the almighty Father,
who created you,
in the name of Jesus Christ,
the Son of the living God,
who suffered for you,
in the name of the Holy Spirit,
who was poured out upon you.
Go forth, faithful Christian!
May you live in peace this day,
may your home be with God in Zion,
with Mary, the virgin Mother of God,
with Joseph, and all the angels and saints ...
May you return to your Creator
who formed you from the dust of the earth.
May holy Mary, the angels, and all the saints
come to meet you as you go forth from this life ...
May you see your Redeemer face to face.
