It is great to be back in the parish. Thanks to everyone for your good wishes, prayers, cards and the kindness you have all shown me over the past six weeks. Thanks to all who kept the parish running, with bulletins, organising Masses, and caring for communion calls. Thanks to all who led Communion Services on the days there was no Mass. Thanks to the priests in the area, especially Tullamore Parish, who celebrated Funeral Masses, and other scheduled Masses.

The New Roman Missal

We start using the new missal this week in our parish. It was last changed in 1975. The missal will become part of all our lives, in the celebration of weekday and Sunday Masses, Funeral Masses and Wedding Masses etc. It is something we will grow to love. Most of the changes are in the parts of the Mass which the priest says, but there are also changes in the congregation responses. There are cards with the responses for everyone. Please leave them behind you so that others can use them also. No matter what prayers we say even the Our Father we need to reflect on the meaning of what we are saying, hopefully the New Missal will give us the opportunity to reflect more deeply on the prayers of the Mass.

P.T.A.A. Meeting next Thursday 29th September in Kilbeggan Church at 8p.m.

Congratulations to the Ladies on the County Team. We wish them great success in the All Ireland Final.

Come and See

The Diocese of Meath would like to invite you to the event "Come and See" - Celebrating our Faith - Signs of Hope for the Future. This event is taking place over a 3 day period from the 14th-16th October in Navan. Friday 14th October: Focus on Youth.

Young people from all over the Meath diocese are invited. Fr John Harris (Y2K priest), Ger Brennan (Dublin footballer), Pat Reynolds and many others will make presentations. There will be music (Elation), games, drama, testimonies etc. The Friday programme is from 7 pm till 11pm.

Saturday 15th & Sunday 16th October

People from every Parish are invited to hear and meet some of the very best international and national speakers, presenters, and engage in workshops, see films, exhibitions, enjoy adoration, have confessions, attend masses, ask questions, enjoy music and singing and share experiences. The Saturday programme is from 9:30am till 7:00pm. The Sunday programme is from 2:00pm till 7:00pm. Invite your family, friends, neighbours to this very special weekend. It is a unique opportunity to gather as a diocese for the celebration of our faith and to experience many signs of hope for the future. The IEC2012 Eucharistic Congress Bell will be in Navan on Saturday 15 October. Please put the dates in your diary and pass on the details to your family and friends!
