Pope Leo's prayer intention for November - For the proper use of wealth
Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service for the common good and solidarity of those who have less.
See Pope's video and transcript/prayer on our parish website https://www.kilbegganparish.ie

Dear brothers and sisters, through his resurrection, Christ has already made room for us in his heart. Welcome this grace into your families! With him and in him, every family can become a seed of genuine renewal for this country. Throughout Argentina's history, culture and society, the family has been a source of the fundamental values of its people. In this land, where different cultures and ethnic groups have come together, the family is the place where faith, human virtues, a culture of work, respect for the elderly, the defence of life and fidelity to one's word are handed on. Do not give in to those who dismiss the Christian family as outdated. On the contrary, today more than ever, it remains a pillar amid the many insecurities of our time.

Open the doors of your homes to Christ! Speak naturally to your children about Jesus, and remain united to him. In the intimacy of the home, faith is passed on along with life itself, through the simplest gestures: a blessing before meals, a prayer before going to bed, forgiveness and mutual listening, grandparents teaching their grandchildren to pray, going to Mass on Sundays, and preparing for a retreat or a pilgrimage. Indeed, the family is a privileged place for coming to know and encounter Christ. Our beloved Pope Francis, who was Bishop of this city, expressed with great conviction that "the family is called to join in daily prayer, to read the word of God and to share in Eucharistic communion, and thus to grow in love and become ever more fully a temple in which the Spirit dwells" (Amoris Laetitia, 29). Pope Leo at Mass in Argentina, last Monday.

548 lives laved from execution in California Californian Governor Gavin Newsom announced on November 5 that he would commute all 548 death sentences in the state to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole. In an open letter to Californians, Newsom said he was exercising his constitutional clemency authority. His office said the commutations would take effect once the necessary legal steps were completed. California's Constitution requires the state's Supreme Court to review clemency proceedings for people convicted of a felony more than once. The governor's office said he had submitted the matter to the court. The commutations will change the sentences without overturning convictions, granting pardons, or making prisoners eligible for release.

V. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
R. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you will renew the face of the earth.
Let us pray: O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolation, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Parish Charity Shop: We have a wide selection of high quality clothing, household goods and Bric-a-brac. Open Monday to Friday 10am to 5pm. Thanks to all who support the shop.
