The Loneliness of the Elderly. Pope Leo

God's love, which forgets no one, offers itself as an act of justice and a response to the anonymity in which human life all too often ends up lost. The lives of many elderly people, in particular, seem to be covered by a veil that blurs the features of their faces and shrouds them in oblivion. This is what happens in homes where loneliness reigns and also in those care facilities where each person's uniqueness risks being reduced to a bed number or an illness

The Church understands the suffering of her elderly members; she knows full well that they are all too often viewed through the lens of stereotypes and considered a burden; she is aware that a profit-driven economy weakens family ties; she knows that many elderly people are left behind by children who are forced to migrate or, in some cases, to fight in wars.

For each of these reasons, she joyfully proclaims the Lord's promise: "But I will never forget you!"

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing,
I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins,
I offer you this poor heart of mine.
Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will.

Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you.

Protect me in the midst of danger.

Comfort me in my afflictions.

Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

Abortions in the Republic of Ireland. In 2024, there were 10,852 abortions officially recorded in the Republic of Ireland, which is the highest number of terminations carried out since the law was changed in 2018. This represents an 8.16% increase from 2023 and a 62.8% increase from 2019. This is 434 classrooms of children who have died in 2024 by abortion. One in six pregnancies end in abortion in Ireland. This is a frightening statistic, and highlights that abortion is taking the life of another person. Many women end up with awful regrets and suffering.

Pope Leo speaks to migrants in Gran Canaria

At the end of his address, the pope told those gathered:

"Dear friends, I carry you in my heart and will remember you in my prayers. May God bless you, your families, and all who do good to you. And may the Blessed Virgin Mary, consolation of migrants, always accompany and assist you with her maternal protection."

He asks all the world to pray for migrants and to bring an end to racism and discrimination.
