Please pray for the repose of the soul of Celia Lynham, Castletown Geoghegan, mother of Marie Ennis and sister of Moira Abbott, who died during the week, may she rest in peace.

St. John Henry Newman, the founding rector of UCD. Wrote a beautiful prayer to the Spirit that we might touch the world with God's love through his power.

Come Holy Spirit

Make our ears to hear

Make our eyes to see

Make our mouths to speak

Make our hearts to seek

Make our hands to reach out

And touch the world with your love.

Amen.

Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Mt.11: 28-30

Make love your aim

Your generosity as a parish is astounding. Our Renovation Fund debt is now down to €240,000, which is wonderful when you think of the initial cost of €1.1m.

We have had no Sunday collections, since the start of the closures therefore the day to day running account for the parish is running low.

I am very conscious that many peoples' circumstances have changed, due to unemployment or reduced hours, and they may not be able to support the parish at present. If you are not in this position and would like to contribute to the support of the Parish, we would be grateful. It was intended to distribute the envelopes before Easter, but we delayed due to the lockdown. Thanks to those who are distributing them now, and thank you for your support. We hope you will have them in the coming week.

Dear brothers and sisters of the United States, I am following with great concern the painful social unrest that has been taking place in your country these days following the tragic death of Mr. George Floyd.

Dear friends, we cannot tolerate or close our eyes on any type of racism or exclusion and pretend to defend the sacredness of every human life. At the same time, we must recognize that “the violence of the last few nights is self-destructive and self-injurious. Nothing is gained by violence and so much is lost”. Today I join the Church of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, and of all the United States, in praying for the rest of the soul of George Floyd and all the others who have lost their lives because of the sin of racism. Let us pray for the comfort of families and friends who are heartbroken, and pray for national reconciliation and the peace we yearn for. Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mother of America, intercede for all those who work for peace and justice in your land and in the world. God bless you all and your families. Pope Francis in his Audience on Wednesday.

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a state sweltering with the heat of injustice, sweltering with the heat of oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the colour of their skin but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today! I have a dream that one day, down in Alabama, with its vicious racists, with its governor having his lips dripping with the words of "interposition" and "nullification" -- one day right there in Alabama little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers.

I have a dream today! I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, and every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight; "and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together."²

Martin Luther King, Jr. I Have a Dream delivered 28 August 1963, at the Lincoln Memorial, Washington D.C

I praise you, Father all-powerful.
I praise you, Divine Son, our Lord and Saviour.
I praise you, Spirit of Love and Consolation.
One God, three Persons, Triune Unity,
be near me in the temple of my soul.
Draw me to share in your life and love.

In your kindness
grant to me and to my family
the riches of your mercy,
and a share in your blessing,
that we may come to the glory of your Kingdom
and rejoice in loving you for all eternity. Amen.
