Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

The Vatican report on ex Cardinal McCarrick Archbishop of Washington who was found guilty of abuse of minors was issued during the week. It is available to read.

The summary version of the report is available:

Final Paragraph ends with a prayer written by Pope Francis in 2018

The foregoing account has detailed the Holy See's knowledge and decision-making regarding McCarrick from his first episcopal appointment through 2017. The Report concludes the Secretariat of State's factual examination ordered by Pope Francis in late 2018. As the Holy Father has stated: "If one member suffers, all suffer together with it" (1 Cor 12:26). These words of Saint Paul forcefully echo in my heart as I acknowledge once more the suffering endured by many minors due to sexual abuse, the abuse of power and the abuse of conscience perpetrated by a significant number of clerics and consecrated persons. Crimes that inflict deep wounds of pain and powerlessness, primarily among the victims, but also in their family members and in the larger community of believers and nonbelievers alike. Looking back to the past, no effort to beg pardon and to seek to repair the harm done will ever be sufficient. Looking ahead to the future, no effort must be spared to create a culture able to prevent such situations from happening, but also to prevent the possibility of their being covered up and perpetuated. The pain of the victims and their families is also our pain, and so it is urgent that we once more reaffirm our commitment to ensure the protection of minors and of vulnerable adults.

Prayer Before the Crucifix

Most high, glorious God, enlighten the darkness of my heart and give me Lord,
a correct faith, a certain hope,
a perfect charity, sense and knowledge,
so that I may carry out Your holy and true command. AMEN

We adore you
Most Holy Lord Jesus Christ
Here and in all your churches
Throughout the world,
And we bless you because
By your holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Amen. Prayers of St. Francis of Assisi.

Bishop Cullinane Waterford and Lismore suggests things we could do during the Lockdown for Living Our Faith (Excerpts)

1. Believe in God's Love. First things first! Remember God. Uncertainties, changes and restrictions easily lead to anxiety, fear and tension. Remember St. Peter's advice to the First Christians: "Cast all your anxiety onto God, because he cares for you" (1 Peter 5:7).

2. Slow Down and Look deeper. Covid-19 has helped us all realise how busy and frantic life can be and that this is not good for us. It has helped many to recalibrate, to look deeper and begin again in our approach to life.

3. Live the Present Moment. We normally spend so much time revisiting the past or planning the dreams of the future, but easily ignore to focus on the present. St. Teresa of Lisieux used to say, "You know that to love you, Lord, I only have today."

4. Serve. We appreciate in these days the ways people offer services that we really need but that we can often take for granted – from truck deliveries to shop assistants. We salute with gratitude all in healthcare and the essential services as well as priests, religious, school staff and parishioners who have given of themselves so generously in recent months.

5. Build Up your Family as a "domestic church". Everyone belongs to a family. We have heard of whole families coming together, in a way they haven't for years, to participate in Mass being transmitted on Television or online in one way or another. Some families set up small sacred spaces in their homes. Each of us is called to build up our family as a "domestic church", a home church, a family church

6. Mark Sunday in a Special Way. Sunday has always been central in the life of Catholics. Gathering together for the Eucharist means so much to us. It goes to the heart of who we are as Church. Reading the readings of the Mass.

7. Small Daily Practices. Faith needs to be nourished in small everyday little ways. For instance, saying simple morning, evening and night prayers and encouraging our children to do so. There are plenty of prayer resources on line. Say the Rosary'

8. Pilgrimage. Visit the Church or Cemetery or some holy place in the parish, and say some prayers.

9. Read Gods' Word and spend time listening to God. Have silent times to reflect so that God can speak to our hearts through the Scriptures. Maybe read a parable or story from the Gospel and reflect on it quietly.
