Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”
Mt.11: 28-30

Apostolic Work
IRELAND

Kilbeggan Apostolic Works Society regret they are not able to have their annual display of Mass Boxes and Vestments on Mission Sunday.

Due to the generosity of your donation we are sending €600 to the Pontifical Missionary Society.

Thanks for your generosity. Mass will be offered for deceased members on Saturday and Sunday.

We will have Rosary and Benediction Sunday to Thursday at 7.30 p.m. this coming week which will be available on the webcam.

WORLD MISSIONS IRELAND

We can have no collection for Mission Sunday due to the restriction on public Masses. I have let Mission envelopes at the back of the church which you can use if you would like to make a contribution when you visit the church. You can place it in the collection tables and we will pass it on.

We remember in our prayers all priests, religious and lay who have gone on the mission to bring the message of Christ. May God bless them all.

Pray for Vocations

Confessions are available on Saturday after 10 a.m. Mass or on request. All are welcome to receive the Sacrament. An examination of Conscience is available for reflection outside the Confession Room.

The Parish Charity Shop has proven to be a great success and is providing a great service in the parish. The shop looks beautiful on Main St and has given it a lift.

Good quality items are sold at reasonable prices and the money raised is used by the parish to help pay the debt on the Renovation Fund. This will help make it easier for parishioners. Due to our charity status we are able to have a Charity Shop. Thanks to everyone who bring items for sale, thanks to all who use the shop and thanks to the ladies in the shop.

ENCYCLICAL LETTER FRATELLI TUTTI OF POPE FRANCIS ON FRATERNITY AND SOCIAL FRIENDSHIP AN EXCERPT

Abandoned on the wayside

63. Jesus tells the story of a man assaulted by thieves and lying injured on the wayside. Several persons passed him by, but failed to stop. These were people holding important social positions, yet lacking in real concern for the common good. They would not waste a couple of minutes caring for the injured man, or even in calling for help. Only one person stopped, approached the man and cared for him personally, even spending his own money to provide for his needs. He also gave him something that in our frenetic world we cling to tightly: he gave him his time. Certainly, he had his own plans for that day, his own needs, commitments and desires. Yet he was able to put all that aside when confronted with someone in need. Without even knowing the injured man, he saw him as deserving of his time and attention.

64. Which of these persons do you identify with? This question, blunt as it is, is direct and incisive. Which of these characters do you resemble? We need to acknowledge that we are constantly tempted to ignore others, especially the weak. Let us admit that, for all the progress we have made, we are still “illiterate” when it comes to accompanying, caring for and supporting the most frail and vulnerable members of our developed societies. We have become accustomed to looking the other way, passing by, ignoring situations until they affect us directly.
