Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

This Sunday is Safeguarding Sunday in the Diocese of Meath. As we come back together it is important that we remember the spirit of safeguarding embodied in our parish communities. We have been aware during Covid restrictions of keeping each other safe. Safeguarding in our Church involves this same spirit and underpins everything that we do as a parish community. As adults in the Church, it is our Christian duty to work together to make sure that children's participation in Church activities is safe. We can fulfil this duty by participating in safeguarding training and abiding by the policies and procedures in place in Church activities such as attendance registers and appropriate supervision ratios. Our Safeguarding Representatives in the Parish are Joe Henson 087 2407318 and Ann Corcoran 086 062 8486 The Parish policy is on our website and the diocesan website <https://www.meathsafeguarding.ie/>

Thanks to all the volunteers who made it possible for our parish to function during the pandemic. Thanks to the sacristans, stewards, sanitisers, Altar Society, organists and singers, Ministers of the Word and Ministers of the Eucharist. The church was well maintained and kept safe and clean during the whole pandemic. It was wonderful to be able to keep in contact with people in the parish and those far away. It blessed many to come to an open church to experience the presence of God all the time of the pandemic. We were able to keep the website going, the webcam, weekly bulletin, Masses, Rosary and Benediction so as to unite everyone in prayer. All of these were made possible by the people mentioned. We owe them all a debt of gratitude. Thanks to all our parishioners for their goodness and kindness during the Pandemic.
