Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Greening Kilbeggan - have your say.

This project is one way for you to share your thoughts and ideas about the future of this part of the county. Place your pin to comment on what works well and what could be done differently in future - transport; town centre; access; trees and greenspaces; local food and farming; greenways; play and anything else you think is important. You can make comments up until Friday December 10th 2021. This project is funded by the National Economic and Social Council (NESC). The research is carried out by University College Dublin (UCD) School of Geography. Go to the website and put a pin on the map and make your comments.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

Instead of a Penitential Service at Christmas I will provide Confessions after every Mass during Advent. This will give people 12 opportunities in the week to go to Confessions along with the Saturday Confessions 11-12 noon. In all there will be over 40 opportunities for Confessions. There is also Confessions available in neighbouring parishes.

"One does not go to confession as chastised people who must humble themselves, but as children who run to receive the Father's embrace. And the Father lifts us up in every situation, He forgives our every sin. Hear this well: God always forgives! Do you understand? God always forgives!" One is not going to a judge to settle accounts, but "to Jesus who loves me and heals me". "Let them feel themselves to be in the place of God the Father who always forgives and embraces and welcomes. Let us give God first place in confession. If God, if He, is the protagonist, everything becomes beautiful, and confessing becomes the Sacrament of joy. Yes, of joy: not of fear and judgment, but of joy". Pope Francis
