Come to me,
all you that
are weary and
are carrying
heavy burdens, and I
will give you rest. Take my yoke upon
you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and
humble in
heart, and you
will find rest
for your souls. For my
yoke is easy,
and my burden is light.”
Mt.11: 28-30

A Mass of Thanksgiving for the synodal process will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday next here in Kilbeggan. I hope you will be able to attend the Mass in thanks for this time of listening and discernment and to ask for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in the task of discerning God's will in the responses that will be received.

Please return your completed questionnaire before Easter to one of the following: the Synod Box in the Church; the Parochial House; by post to: Diocesan Offices, Dublin Road, Mullingar, Co. Westmeath (please mark envelope "Synod Questionnaire") or email to meathsynodalpathway@gmail.com The questionnaire can also be downloaded from the Synod page on www.dioceseofmeath.ie

Thanks to all who came to one of the meetings. Between the three meetings we had over 200 who attended. There was a really lively discussion.

Copies of the questionnaire are available at the entrances to the Church — please take one and reflect on the questions and have your say. If you wish to add any other comments you can use more paper.

Thanking all mothers for their love and sacrifices, for their support and understanding, their generosity and goodness.

Part of the Letter of thanks from Mons. Losif Păuleț Bishop of Iasi, Romania, whose diocese is supporting refugees coming from Ukraine. We sent €8,500 from Kilbeggan/Rahugh Parish.

" I would like to thank you for the noble gesture of charity and generosity that you have made in the name of faith, that of supporting the Ukrainian refugees fleeing the war, but also all those who are in the front line to embrace the refugees with their human, spiritual and material support.

The financial support you sent us has been redirected to our diocesan association Caritas, which is present day and night on the border with Ukraine, and to all our parishes, which are close to the border with Ukraine and which offer unconditional support to all refugees.

Together with all my collaborators, I want to assure you of our appreciation and our fraternal prayer, and I invoke God's blessing and mercy on all the people of Ireland, but especially on the diocese which you pasture and serve with such devotion."

Trocaire Boxes are available in the Church .
