Come to me,
all you that are weary and are carrying
heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon
you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy,
and my burden is light.”
Mt.11: 28-30

Make love

Please return your completed questionnaire before Easter to one of the following: the Synod Box the Church, the Parochial House, by post to: Diocesan Offices, Dublin Road, Mullingar, Co. Westmeath (please mark envelope “Synod Questionnaire”) or email to meathsynodalpathway@gmail.com The questionnaire can also be downloaded from the Synod page on www.dioceseofmeath.ie Copies of the questionnaire are available at the entrances to the Church please take one and reflect on the questions and have your say. If you wish to add any other comments you can use more paper.

There is an opportunity for personal confession after Mass each day. And from 11—12 on Saturday. Confessions is a great occasion to receive the Mercy and forgiveness of God our Father in the Sacrament he has given us. It is a great time of joy and peace which he wants us to treasure and celebrate. There is no Communal Penitential Service.

Thanks to all who are so generous. The cost of our project was €1.1 million and our current debt is at €50,000. We will have the new Collection Envelopes out before Easter. Would those who usually distribute them collect them from the sacristy next Sunday for distribution.

Trocaire
Working for a just world.

Boxes are available in the Church entrance.

You will be able to bring the money you wish to donate to Trocaire back to the Church at Easter or you can send it directly to Trocaire. The European Union is blocking an attempt to remove barriers, that would allow potential generic manufacturers in low-income countries to produce their own life-saving vaccines. Email your local TDs now, asking them to ensure the Irish Government pushes the EU to change its position. Contact your T.D.
