Come to me,
all you that are weary and are carrying
heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon
you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy,
and my burden is light.”

Today we celebrate World Day of Prayer for Vocations. In his message Pope Francis reminds us “Every vocation is a summons not to stand on the shore, nets in hand, but to follow Jesus on the path he has marked out for us, for our own happiness and for the good of those around us.”

If you would like more information about Priesthood in the Diocese of Meath you can contact me or Fr Tony Gonoude 0449373923 Website: www.meathvocations.com Email: vocations@dioceseofmeath.ie

Prayer for Vocations

O Jesus, send labourers into your fields, which are awaiting holy apostles, saintly priests, heroic missionaries and dedicated sisters and brothers.
Enkindle in the hearts of men and women the spark of a vocation.
Grant that Christian families may desire to give your Church, helpers in the work of tomorrow.
AMEN

We have three students studying for the Diocese of Meath at the moment Barry White who will be ordained priest this summer and Anthony Kerr and Mark Caffery.

Archbishop Eamon Martin of Armagh and Archbishop Dermot Farrell of Dublin, as President and Vice-President of the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference, have published the following statement to thank the parishes across Ireland for their extraordinary generosity in raising to date of over €3.25 million in response to the crisis in Ukraine. Following the invasion of Ukraine by Russia on 24 February, the Bishops of Ireland asked for a special collection in parishes across the island. This mainly took place over the weekend of 26 and 27 March, as an additional way of helping to address the humanitarian crisis in Ukraine.

Confessions Saturday 10.30 — 11.30 a.m.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament Monday 10 - 11 a.m.

Friday in Rahugh 7 - 8.30 p.m. with Mass at 7.30 p.m.

Dear boys and girls, I am happy to share this great moment with you and help you meet Jesus. For you, this is a day to be celebrated in a spirit of friendship, joy and fraternity. A day of communion among yourselves and with the whole Church, which, especially in the Eucharist, expresses the communion that makes all of us brothers and sisters. This is our identity card: God is our Father, Jesus is our brother, the Church is our family. All of us are brothers and sisters, and our law is love. Pope Francis at a First Holy Communion Mass.
