Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Mt.11: 28-30

"We can say to God the Father in our prayer: "Father, I love you with the love with which your Son Jesus loves you!" And we can say to Jesus: "Jesus, I love you with the love with which your heavenly Father loves you!" And know with certainty that all this is not a pious figment of our imagination!" Cardinal Raniero Cantalamessa, the Preacher of the Papal Household.

God holds out his hand and lifts us up whenever we realize we are 'hitting rock bottom' and we turn back to him with a sincere heart. That is how God is. He is waiting for us, deep down, for in Jesus he chose to 'descend to the depths.' Pope Francis

Have I fed the hungry?
Given drink to the thirsty?
Clothed the naked?
Sheltered the homeless?
Visited the sick?
Visited the imprisoned?
Buried the dead?

I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me. Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God? You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain. Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people? Do I go to Mass every Sunday?

Honour your father and your mother: Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

You shall not kill. Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

You shall not commit adultery: Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

You shall not steal: Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour: Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

You shall not covet your neighbour's spouse: Have I honoured my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

You shall not covet your neighbour's goods: Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

Christ's Two Commandments: How well do we love God and others? Do we love as Christ calls us to? In the Gospel of Matthew, Christ gives us Two Commandments: "He said to him, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbour as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments'" (Mt 22:37-40).

Not sure what love is? St. Paul describes it for us in his Letter to the Corinthians. Is this how you love God and others? "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails" (1 Cor 13:4-8).
