Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”
Mt.11: 28-30

Would you like your home blessed? “We must ask the Lord to grant us the Holy Spirit and to grant us the gift of wisdom, that wisdom of God that teaches us to see with God’s eyes, to feel with God’s heart, to speak with God’s words. And so, with this wisdom, let us go forward, let us build our family, let us build the Church, and we will all be sanctified.” Pope Francis. If you would like your home blessed, contact Fr. Starting on Wednesday, September 6th at 7.30 p.m. in the Parish Centre, there will be an opportunity to reflect on the Mass Readings of the following Sunday.

What will happen at the meetings:

- ◆ We will have a short video, speaking about the background of the readings for Sunday
- ◆ A time to pray, read and reflect on the readings.
- ◆ A time to share

You do not have to come every week, but you can drop in on the weeks that suit you.

The aim is to deepen our relationship with God and understand more deeply his will for our lives. Everyone is welcome. I encourage Readers and Special Ministers of the Eucharist to come along.

Everyone is welcome

This is the First Friday week. I will bring Holy Communion to the sick and housebound this week. If a member of your family would like to be attended, please let me know.

After 9.30 a.m. Mass on Friday next, we will have tea/coffee and some scones in the Parish Centre.

All are welcome. No charge.

For the past three years we were glad to facilitate the Mercy Secondary School in the Parish Centre. Now that the new school is ready to open, we will have rooms available for meetings. Rent will be reasonable. It is also available for children’s birthday parties, etc.
