Come to me,
all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy,
and my burden
is light.”
Mt.11: 28-30

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Fr. Eamonn O'Brien retired Parish Priest of Rochfortbridge. May he Rest in Peace

The PPA have now met after the summer break. Our time of prayer centred on Jesus, the Light of the World: all of us in the Parish can share God's love, light and hope in our everyday thoughts, words and actions. We continue to review appropriate websites which support our faith and these will be shared via the news bulletin.

We invite you to attend the Wednesday Scripture Evenings, which will offer an opportunity to develop a greater understanding of the Sunday readings. As we read in Psalm 119 v.105: "Your Word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path."

Thank you

Maintenance Fund: €285; Plate: €1,130; Offerings: €105.

Thanks to all who are so generous.

Meán Scoil An Chlochair - Congratulations to Garrett and Bernadette and all the Staff and Board of Management on the new Secondary School. Thanks to the Sisters of Mercy who gave the site. We wish all staff and students a blessed time in the new school.

Congratulations!

Parish Charity Shop We have a wide selection of new summer clothing, household goods and bric-a-brac. Much of the clothing is brand new and never worn. There is also a wide selection of shoes. All stock greatly reduced in our Clearance Sale.

BIG CLEARANCE SALE

Open Tuesday to Saturday 10 a.m. — 5p.m. Thanks to all who support the shop.

Having a place to go is Home
Having someone to love is Family
Having both is a Blessing

Would you like your home blessed? “We must ask the Lord to grant us the Holy Spirit and to grant us the gift of wisdom, that wisdom of God that teaches us to see with God’s eyes, to feel with God’s heart, to speak with God’s words. And so, with this wisdom, let us go forward, let us build our family, let us build the Church, and we will all be sanctified.” Pope Francis. If you would like your home blessed, contact Fr. Brendan 087 2618353

Starting this Wednesday 6th September at 7.30 p.m. in the Parish Centre, there will be an opportunity to reflect on the Mass Readings for next Sunday.

What will happen at the meetings:

- ◆ We will have a short video, speaking about the background of the readings for Sunday
- ◆ A time to pray, read and reflect on the readings.
- ◆ A time to share

You do not to come every week, but you can drop in on the weeks that suit you.

The aim is to deepen our relationship with God and understand more deeply his will for our lives. I encourage Readers and Special Ministers of the Eucharist to come along.

Everyone is welcome

For the past three years we were glad to facilitate the Mercy Secondary School in the Parish Centre. Now that the new school is ready to open we will have rooms available for meetings. Rent will be reasonable. It is also available for children’s birthday parties, etc.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available each Saturday from 10.30—11.30a.m. in St James’ Church, Kilbeggan. If you wish to make an appointment for Confessions outside these times, contact me at 087 2618353. The Confession room is bright and spacious and respects the anonymity of the penitent. You can sit or kneel.

CatholicNews.ie is the news service for the Irish Catholic Bishops’ Conference. It gives up to date news on the Church in Ireland and it is a good way to keep informed about the life of the Church in Ireland. We hear less and less on the National Media about what is happening in the life of the Church in Ireland. There are many interesting articles and podcasts about the Church and its work in Ireland. <https://catholicnews.ie/> You can signup to the ezine [e-magazine] at <https://catholicnews.ie/newsletter/>
