Sincere thanks to Jack Connolly on his retirement from his post as Sacristan in St. James Church. Jack has served in the church on a voluntary basis for the past fifteen years. He was responsible for collections, banking, and ordering supplies for the church. Jack also opened and closed the church. He prepared the church for weddings, funerals, weekday and week-end Masses. Jack was always available to help around the Church. I am very grateful to Jack for giving so generously of his time and energy to serve as Sacristan, and for his team spirit working for the Parish over the years. On behalf of all the parishioners of Kilbeggan/Rahugh parish, Thank You Jack for your dedication and service—it was greatly appreciated by all. Wishing you many blessings in the years ahead.
