Pope's intention for September: For our relationship with all of creation

Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

EXAM RESULTS

Bishop Gavin offers hope for the Leaving Cert class of 2025:

"To all of you receiving your Leaving Cert results, whether you are celebrating or feeling disappointed, know this: your worth is not defined by any exam or number," Bishop Gavin said. "This is a reality and not a cliché, so have faith in yourself and those who love you."

"If you didn't get the points or the place you were hoping for, don't despair. God has a purpose for you. Sometimes, it's in the moments when our own plans fall through that a greater destiny begins to unfold. I want you to remember that there are many paths forward, and each one is valuable. Stay open, stay hopeful, and trust that your journey is only beginning, and it will bear fruit. You are never alone on it." Bishop Fintan Gavin, Cork.

Justice and Forgiveness bring Peace

Pope Saint John Paul II said, "I have often paused to reflect on the persistent question: how do we restore the moral and social order subjected to such horrific violence? My reasoned conviction, confirmed in turn by biblical revelation, is that the shattered order cannot be fully restored except by a response that combines justice with forgiveness. The pillars of true peace are justice and that form of love which is forgiveness."

Not only individuals, but also "families, groups, societies, States and the international community itself need forgiveness in order to renew ties that have been sundered, go beyond sterile situations of mutual condemnation and overcome the temptation to discriminate against others without appeal. The ability to forgive lies at the very basis of the idea of a future society marked by justice and solidarity." World Day for Peace 2002 John Paul II

Prayer of St Teresa of Avila

Christ has no body now but yours.
No hands, no feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which
He looks lovingly on this world.
Yours are the feet with which
He walks to do good.
Yours are the hands through which
He blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
yours are the eyes; you are His body.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.
